Motion For Status OF Case

I Richard Wayne Wright, Sr. Plaintiff Pro. Se., Comes Now before this Honorable Court and Clerk inquiring about plaintiff motion objecting to the Magistrate Judge Recommendation pass down on October 31, 2005.

Plaintiff "motion For an extension of time" was granted and signed by Judge Charles S. Coady on November 21, 2005. Plaintiff has not received any response from this Honorable Court concerning plaintiff "objection motion" in which plaintiff placed in the U.S. Mail Box at Ventress Correctional Facility (V.C.F.) on Wednesday morning, November 23, 2005 at approximately / about 4:00 a.m. with postage prepaid. Plain-

Plaintiff placed the defendant's Counselors Steven M. Sirmon (Assistant Attorney General) and Troy King (Attorney General) a copy of plaintiff's "objection Motion" in the legal mail box located inside the Kitchen at (V.C.F.) For postage to be paid by these prison officials and properly mailed by the U.S. Postal Service it was returned to plaintiff on November 23rd or 24th 2005 between the hours of 11 p.m. and 4 a.m. 23th thru 24th of November 2005, while I laid in the infirmary #103.

Plaintiff mailed an urgent motion "Motion For Restraining Order" on November 27, 2005, Monday during breakfast tray's being served by proper prison officials with proper postage to be placed in the U.S. Mail Box at (V.C.F.). Plaintiff has not received any response from this Honorable Court as of today December 8th, 2005. Thursday Morning Concerning (said) motion. Plaintiff submitted said motion with urgency due to the assault [he] faced at the hands of defendants (Lt. J. Dowling and Sgt. C. Longmire) agents directly under [their] supervision (Sgt. Carter, office

R. Brown, officer L. Richardson and a Fourth (4th) officer was involved "who" has not been properly identified. Plaintiff was transported to (said) Bullock County Hospital For Medical treatment. Defendant T. Siddiq (M.D.) showed up at the hospital a defendant (apart) of plaintiff (said) Complaint. Defendant T. Siddiq (M.D.) Minimized all plaintiff injuries [he] suffered by the hands of defendant's agents listed above. Plaintiff was Forced to sit slope over in a wheel chair, Forced to crawl into a van when I was barely able to get into the Van. OFFicer Patterson was the officer giving plaintiff these harsh orders subjecting plaintiff to Further back injuries and neck. He was the one (1) who physically snatch plaintiff shoulders up before going by the administration desk/or nurse station plaintiff was not able to hold such position and went right back to the slope over position. officer Patterson would not allow plaintiff to lay on the Floor of the Van and use many other aggressive Verbally derogatory language with Vulgar statements mixed with his threatening demeanor as if at any time I stop trying to perform these task

OF getting on the seat of the Van, now that I was in the Van (Floor) he would execute another physical assault upon plaintiff as the one (1) [he] had just encountered earlier. The other officer just stood to the side of him with his gun as if plaintiff was attacked by officer Patterson and I showed any resistance [he] would use it, but the (this) officer never said anything directly to me only officer Patterson. Plaintiff seeks a response from this Honorable Court at the earliest and most convenient time.

Lastly plaintiff ask that this Honorable Court and/or Clerk mailed plaintiff a Case Summary action sheet(s) / status docket report from this Honorable Court. IF this Motion is not in its right form plaintiff ask that this Honorable Court construed it into its proper form.

Done this the 8th day of December, 2005.

Respectfully Submitted,
